

Date: April 16, 2024

Investor Notice

Beware of Illegal Activities and Deception

In view of the recent rampant online fraud cases, as well as phone message fraud, we, the Hamon Group ("our Group") have also discovered that some criminals have set up fake mobile applications or webpages in the name of our Group or by falsely claiming to be employees of our Group. They have used our Group's name to establish fake investment exchange groups, social circles, emails, or social platforms to attract potential customers using various unscrupulous methods and engage in rumors and deception.

We emphasize that our Group does not have any investment funds, fixed income investments, or other investment activities in mainland China. In order to prevent investors from being deceived and falling into traps set by criminals, investors are reminded to pay attention to the following:

1. When investors receive messages from unknown sources (via various methods that include SMS, WeChat, and WhatsApp), please do not open the links in those messages;
2. Our Group does not have a mobile application or any apps. Please do not click on links from unknown sources to download mobile applications or any app that claims to be created by or is from our Group;
3. If investors receive calls or messages and have doubts about the caller's or sender's identity, please do not disclose any personal information to the caller or sender;
4. The sole official website of our Group is <https://www.hamon.com.hk>

If in doubt, investors can also reach out to us via the following methods:

- call +852-2526 4268 or
- leave a message at <https://www.hamon.com.hk/contact-us/> or
- email enquiry@hamon.com.hk