Investor Alert on Fraudulent Activities adopting the Chinese name of Hamon Asset Management Limited

It has come to our attention that there was an article on social media about a fake strategic partnership ("Misleading Article") between Hamon Asset Management Limited ("HAML") and a Chinese organization named Juxingshe ("聚星社"). Hamon Investment Group hereby alerts the general public to be vigilant of the Misleading Article. The Chinese name of Hamon Asset Management Limited ("HAML") "亨茂资产管理有限公司" has been used illegally in a Chinese internet public platform. HAML is a member firm of Hamon Investment Group and is a licensed corporation registered with the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong.

The Misleading Article expressed that Juxingshe ("聚星社"), a Chinese internet public welfare entity, and HAML announced a strategic partnership in Shenzhen on July 21 2023 to jointly innovate the business model of public welfare undertakings, to realize the self-development of public welfare organizations, and to achieve long-term and sustainable development of public welfare undertakings ("Fake Partnership"), which is allegedly for the purpose of using the name of 亨茂资产管理有限公司 to sell investment products for 聚星社's fraudulent monetary gains.

Hamon Investment Group hereby clarifies and reiterates that HAML has never partnered with Juxingshe ("聚星社") for any public welfare undertakings or any other businesses whatsoever. HAML has absolutely no affiliation with "聚星社" that offers public welfare undertakings and investment products utilizing its licensing status. HAML has immediately reported the incident to the relevant local regulators and authorities.

Hamon Investment Group will not be responsible for any losses arising from the Fake Partnership and/or reliance on the Misleading Article. Hamon Investment Group reserves the right to take legal action against any parties that infringe its intellectual property rights and/or associate its identity and trademark in any unlawful activities.

Anyone who has been a victim of the fraud should immediately seek assistance from your local law enforcement office.
